Inadequate road facilities

15. DR. RATNAKAR PANDEY: Will the Minister of SURFACE TRANSPORT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that maintenance of both the National and State Highways in the country has been very poor which has led to substantial increase in vehicle user cost; and

(b) if so, what remedial measures Government propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SURFACE TRANSPORT (SHRI RAJESH PILOT) : (a) and (b) Constitutionally, the Government of India are primarily responsbile for roads declared as National Highways. State Highways are the responsibility of the State Governments concerned. Apart from inadequate maintenance, deficiencies in road width and crust thickness in relation to traffic demand also contribute to increase in vehicle user costs. Efforts are being made to provide as much funds as possible for maintenance and development of National Highways keeping in view the availability of resources and inter se priorities.

Establishing Relations with Israel

16. DR. YELAMANCHILI SIVAJI: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to consider the desirability to establish friendly relations with Israel, in the context of the current sea change in world affairs and pursuade it to accede to PLO's declaration of a Palestine state, if not, what are the reasons therefor; and

(b) whether it is a fact that Hungary is establishing diplomatic relations with South Korea, a former arch rival of the East Block, whether Government propose to take similar initiative with Israel in the context of present world situation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (PROF. K. K. TEWARI) : (a) India has a consistent and principled policy on the Palestinian issue. Israel's response to the constructive moves of the PLO to resolve the Palestinian Question has been far from positive. Government would undertake any appropriate initiative to further the Middle East Peace process. For the present, it sees no need to review its present stand on relations with Israel.

(b) Hungary and South Korea have established diplomatic relations. For the reasons mentioned above, Government are not considering any move to upgrade relations with Israel?
